

Charles Nichols, PT, DPT, MEd, OCS, CSCS
Physical Therapy
School of Health Professions
Email: Charles.Nichols@unthsc.edu

Area of Expertise

Dr. Charles Nichols's primary interest is in the evaluation and treatment of orthopedic physical therapy patients with a special interest in spinal manual therapy and trigger point dry needling. He is the course director of the musculoskeletal portion of the Physical Therapy program. Dr. Nichols is a Board Certified Orthopedic Clinical Specialist by the APTA and has a particular interest in manual therapy having completed his manual therapy certification through the Evidence in Motion Manual Therapy Program. He is currently working on his Doctor of Science degree from Texas Tech University Health Science Center.

Qualifications

DPT, EIM Institute of Health Professions

BS in Physical Therapy, Texas Tech University

ScD in Physical Therapy, Texas Tech University Health Science Center

MEd in Kinesiology, University of Texas at Tyler